

I support the use of cellular phone technologies onboard commercial airlines. I, however, feel that there should be limits; i.e., not using the phones during the night while people are sleeping, etc.

Regards,
David Edens